

Privacy Policy (HIPAA Compliance)

Lavish Physical Therapy is committed to protecting the privacy and security of your Protected Health Information (PHI) in accordance with the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA).

We collect personal and health-related information including, but not limited to, your name, contact details, medical history, treatment plans, and session notes. This information is used strictly for treatment, payment, and healthcare operations. Your PHI will never be sold or used for marketing without your explicit written authorization.

Information may only be disclosed:

- To other healthcare providers involved in your care
 - For billing and payment processing
 - When required by federal or state law
- All records are securely maintained with administrative, physical, and technical safeguards to ensure confidentiality and integrity. You have the right to access, amend, and request restrictions on your health information at any time.
